The Right Career for Me

Meet Stephanie Melgares

“ After working for four years for commercial real estate, I knew I was ready for a change. My friend has been in the property management industry for 15 years, and he shares great stories about his work and loving what he does. That made me confident that I would love it myself, since I am fueled by helping others and working with people. I decided to pursue residential property management, leading to the best decision I’ve made in my career.

A year later, I’m so happy with the career choice, the camaraderie in this field, and the new relationships that I have made. I wake up ready to go to work, excited for what the new day will bring — and I look forward to learning something new. I’m on the right track for the next stepping stone — being an assistant property manager one day. ”
